

Recommended Jewish Apps

1. The Amazing Jewish Fact-a-Day Calendar puts a 20-second nugget of amazing Judaism on the screen every day, with compelling graphics and links to further online reading, audio and video. It's coolest feature: Using the device's GPS, the app rests on Shabbat.

2. iBless is a handy, on-the-go-guide to the Hebrew blessings (brachos or berachoth) recited before and after eating. Search for the food and the app will tell you which bracha to make.

3. The Tanach app allows you to browse, search and study the Best Seller. Features crisp Hebrew text and precise vowel placement for proper cantillation as well as Rashi commentary!

4. All Jewish educators believe it is important to learn Hebrew, but some students really struggle with the language. Alef Bet Schoolhouse teaches the alph-bet with sound, color and animation

5. "Are you kosher?" Well, food can be kosher, but not people. But this kosherguide can locate the nearest kosher restaurants using GPS or by simply typing in the current location. Includes a list of kosher symbols.

6. Read Megillat Esther on Purim.... This app which allows you to scroll through verses and make unique gragger noises every time you reach the name of the wicked Haman.

7. iShofar is a cute way to hear the shofar sounds right on your phone! Just click on the sound you wish to hear, i.e. Tekiah, Shevarim, Teruah etc. Enjoy!

8. The Bedtime Shema app is a fun and interactive learning aid for children, inspiring them and helping them learn to say the Shema.

9. HebrewNEXT is the official Hebrew flashcard app of Birthright Israel, bringing Hebrew right to your phone and making it quick and easy to learn. Featuring a bank of key phrases ideal for travel.

10. YU Torah is Yeshiva University's service for streaming classes by prominent YU teachers. Now there is no excuse not to learn a little every day.

11. Purim Match is a memory game designed to be kid friendly with the Purim Jewish Holiday artwork. Purim Match is fun and easy to play, and helps educate users of all ages on this joyful holiday.

12. Siddur for iPhone or iPad is a free full traditional prayer book and includes a compass to find the direction towards Jerusalem. (Note, there are other free siddur apps, like this one that uses your device's GPS to compute the local prayer times.)

Know of a great Jewish app not listed here? Please let us know!

